(5/24/11) The Braves beat the Reds 4-0. Four runs in the top of the first were all the Braves would need behind Jerrod Fowler's no-hitter. Reds Gregory Moore and Edgar Pichardo combined to hold the Braves to 4 runs on 9 hits. Fowler went the distance, striking out 9 and allowing only three baserunners. The Reds' best chance came in the bottom of the fifth when Pichardo sliced a line drive to center field, but Nick LoCascio made the tough catch. Ryan Cronk and Alex Geml also excelled on defense. Reds played strong defense as well, throwing out several Braves runners. Third baseman Amanda Snyder tagged two runners out and made a great over-the-shoulder catch.

In the Braves' first, Anthony Leto reached on a infield single and scored with aggressive baserunning. Then, with 2 outs, J Fowler walked, Cronk doubled, and Sammy Fowler tripled to drive them in. Brendan Hemphill's RBI double brought S Fowler home. S Fowler finished 2 for 2 with a run scored and an RBI.
